Both Mr. Cornaleon agree to the 2nd Jan^y being excluded from the no^s of holidays.

It is however not clear whether this is to be in lieu of Good Friday which should be recovered with a general holiday, or whether Good Friday is to continue as a partial holiday & this will not do. Holidays contained by making 2nd Jan^y a working day.

Two alternative Memorandum Notes — one to suit Each view of the case — are accordingly submitted for approval or other orders.

28/1.

On this being personally submitted to the Secretary he wanted this to be brought up for consideration at the next Council meeting.

Submitted to His Highness.

When the list of Government holidays was last revised in accordance with His Highness's order dated 6th December 1912, Good Friday was converted from a General into a Partial holiday for Christians.

2. It has since been brought to notice that Good Friday is treated as a General Holiday in other places and that there is a strong feeling, particularly among the Christian community, against its conversion into a partial holiday. It is therefore now proposed to reconvert it into a General holiday and to curtail the Christmas Holidays by one day by making the 2nd January a working day as it is in British India. Both the Councillors agree to this proposal.
